

KALAMANSI BOOKS AND BOOKBOOK PRESS
NEWSLETTER
v.1, n.1, Winter 2002

Surprise! Our Catalog should be up-to-date by the end of November. It will be available in .html and .pdf formats. We are also exploring shopping cart technology and hope to offer online ordering in the near future.

Our site is more than just a catalog. The "Selected Links" include what we consider to be the best Philippine or Philippine-related sites on the Net. In addition, we are finally archiving our "Features" and hope to publish a newsletter/catalog quarterly.

Our buyers returned from the Philippines on October 12 after whirlwind vacationing and book buying. Selected New Titles are listed on pages two and three of this newsletter.

We are also writing a book, tentatively entitled RETIREMENT IN THE PHILIPPINES: A HOW-TO GUIDE. A number of cities will be described in detail. The book is in the outline stage, with quite a bit of on site research remaining. Interviews with Filipino Americans (and regular canos) who have moved to the Philippines to retire will make the book both a useful and an interesting reference.

The bookstore had a table at Bamboo Ridge Press' recent Writers' Institute. We also plan to have a table at HYBOLICS' "Growing Up Local Filipino" at the Filipino Community Center on November 14, 2002 (7:00 PM). On November 21, the Book Store is co-sponsoring "Reading Filipino Back to Back," featuring literary readings by Marjorie Evans, Poet, and Charlson Ong, Fictionist. The event will be held in the Tokioka Room (Moore 319) at 3:00 PM. Pasko at the Academy of Arts is scheduled for November 24 (1 – 5 PM), and we have already reserved a table. NEW books will be sold at all of the venues.

Browsing our collection can be fun and relaxing — an enjoyable way to spend a morning, afternoon or early evening. Please visit, but remember to call first to make certain there is someone in the office. Our personal collection is also available, but these books must be read here.

We joined our kababayan on the first anniversary of 09/11 in pausing to remember those who died needlessly. Encourage our leaders to promote peace.

Please write letters, send e-mail or call. We are getting better in replying promptly. Maraming salamat for your interest in the Piliippines and for your patience. Aloha. May peace go with you.
